Personal Profile

I am a Costume FdA graduate of Bristol Old Vic Theatre School. I'm a hard-working, driven person who has previously worked in the TV industry for 7 years. I'm adaptable and approach any challenge with a can-do attitude. I have an excellent eye for detail and can handle working under pressure in any situation. I can multi-task and I'm able to think on my feet while providing creative solutions to problems. I work very well as part of a team and I'm able to use my initiative and motivation to work alone. I am patient and am able to maintain high levels of accuracy for long periods of time. I am always keen to learn from others and I have a particular interest in ladies historical and fantasy costumes, which I enjoy researching and making. I am a fast learner and always strive to improve on my skills. My skill set is quite varied, meaning I can turn my hand to any task. I stay organised in my work and appreciate the need for effective communication. I have my own car and I am willing to travel for work.

Hobbies and Interests

In my spare time I enjoy gardening, designing and making my own clothes, true crime podcasts and travelling. I am vegetarian and continue to try and educate myself on healthier and greener ways of living.
